Oregon Shakespeare Festival Production History = 2000s
In 2001 we welcomed our 10 millionth patron, and the Black Swan closes its doors as a performance venue on October 28. In 2002 the New Theatre opened, with a performance of Macbeth. In 2003 OSF is named one of America's top five regional theatres by Time magazine, and the OSF/Berkeley Repertory Theatre co-production of David Edgar's world premiere two-play cycle Continental Divide is named by Time as the #1 American theatre experience for 2003. In 2008 Libby Appel retires, and Bill Rauch is named our fifth Artistic Director.

In this decade the Festival produced these World Premieres, including adaptations: 2000 - The Trojan Women, 2002 - Saturday, Sunday, Monday, 2003 - Continental Divide: Daughters of the Revolution, 2003 - Continental Divide: Mothers Against, 2003 - Lorca in a Green Dress, 2004 - Oedipus Complex, 2004 - The Visit, 2004 - Henry VI, Parts 1, 2, and 3, 2005 - By the Waters of Babylon, 2005 - Gibraltar, 2007 - The Cherry Orchard (adaptation), 2007 - Tracy's Tiger, 2008 - Welcome Home, Jenny Sutter, 2009 - Don Quixote (adaptation), 2009 - Equivocation.
