Oregon Shakespeare Festival Production History = 2010s

On June 18, 2011, the main support beam for the Angus Bowmer Theatre cracked. Performances were staged in a variety of locations in the area including Ashland's Historic Armory, SOUs Dorothy Stolp Center Stage Theatre, and Medford's Craterian Ginger Rogers before settling into a temporary summer home in a large tent dubbed "Bowmer in the Park." On August 2, the Bowmer Theatre was able to reopen. Executive Director Paul Nicholson retires in 2012. The New Theatre was renamed the Thomas Theatre in 2012, in honor of Peter Thomas. The Elizabethan Stage/Allen Pavilion is renamed the Allen Elizabethan Theatre in 2013.

In this decade so far, the Festival has produced these World Premieres, including adaptations: 2010 - Throne of Blood, 2010 - American Night, 2011 - Willful, 2011 - Ghost Light, 2011 - The Imaginary Invalid (adaptation), 2012 - The White Snake, 2012 - All the Way, 2012 - Party People, 2012 - The Very Merry Wives of Windsor, Iowa, 2013- The Unfortunates, 2013 – The Liquid Plain, 2013 – The Tenth Muse, 2014 – A Wrinkle in Time, 2014 – Family Album, 2014 – The Great Society, 2015 – Head Over Heels, 2015 – Fingersmith, 2015 – Sweat, 2015 – (US Premier) Secret Love in Peach Blossom Land, 2016 – Great Expectations, 2016 – The River Bride, 2016 – The Yeomen of the Guard (Adaptation), 2016 – Roe.
